

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

Wallace

100 years after

MARCH 6-8, 2013 • FACULTAD DE CIENCIAS, UNAM • CARLOS GRAEF AUDITORIUM, AMOXCALLI

Wednesday, March 6th

10:00 Inauguration.

Welcome speech by Rosaura Ruiz, headmistress of Facultad de Ciencias

10:30 William Russel Wallace

The importance of Alfred R. Wallace for the Wallace family

12:00 Coffee break

12:30 John van Wyhe (National University of Singapore)

1858 and all that. The Darwin-Wallace mystery solved

14:00 Jonathan Hodge (University of Leeds)

Wallace and Darwin: why were they the first two Darwinians?

Thursday, March 7th

10:00 Alfredo Bueno (UNAM)

and Jorge Llorente (UNAM)

Alfred R. Wallace: Del Extensionismo al permanentismo

11:30 Coffee break

12:00 Juan Manuel Rodríguez Caso (University of Leeds)

"Man under all his varied aspects": Wallace, anthropologist

Friday, March 8th

9:00 Charles H. Smith (Western Kentucky University)

Wallace and the World of Final Causes

10:00 Rosaura Ruiz (UNAM), Juan Manuel Rodríguez (University of Leeds) and Ricardo Noguera (UNAM)

La importancia de Wallace en la biología evolutiva

11:30 Coffee break

12:00 Final discussion

Wallace a cien años de su muerte

13:00 Eudald Carbonell, (Institut Català de Paleoeecologia Humana i Evolució Social, Universitat Roviraí Virgili)

El sitio de Atapuerca y sus contribuciones al conocimiento de la evolución humana

This conference is held in collaboration with the School of Sciences and the Anthropological Research Institute (UNAM), the Mexican Association of Ethnobiology, the Network of Ethnoecology and Biocultural Heritage of CONACYT; the Human-Wildlife Relations Seminar of the National Institute of Anthropology and History and the Mexican Academy of Anthropological Sciences.

14:30 Closing remarks

wallace.fciencias.unam.mx

